Defendant Filed This Document in His Ex-Girlfriend's Case, in His Own Words Claiming it's a Letter He Sent to Chenango District Attorney, Which Includes Backend Links to the Website. Pretty Much What Comes Out of His Mouth is Lies, Misrepresented or Fabricated "Evidence". Defendant is Not Even Remotely Credible.

Case 3:23-cv-01352-TJM-MB Document 84-1 Filed 12/10/24 Page 51 of 78

I have also been contacted by victims in Canada, Los Angeles, San Diego, the United Kingdom, as well as New York.

One of her victims sent me a link to an informative website about the crimes of [REDACTED]
[https://www.\[REDACTED\].info](https://www.[REDACTED].info)

Notwithstanding the fact that since August 9th I have been living as a victim-fugitive out of state since the attempt on my life on August 8, the OOP violations and criminal contempt that started on August 9th (the day after the attempted murder) and have continued on an hourly basis, every day, up until today, and are still occurring.

So far the OOP violations count in the 100's and include, although are not limited to, social media posts on X, Facebook, emails to family and friends, threatening text messages to my professional associates, incl. attorneys, disturbing phone calls to members of the press, videos, audio recordings, intimidating posts directed to my psychologist, 8 doxing posts of my name and address, and voluminous amounts of legal documents that include my name and address.

The aforementioned website also includes some of her previous crimes, deceits and frauds, as well as civil judgements against her:

It has now been over 6 weeks since I called the Chenango District Attorney. I have yet to receive a call back from him, which is surprising, given the series nature of the violent and pre-meditated crime that occurred in his jurisdiction.

Lastly, I still have not heard wether the weekly pre-trial probation check-ins that was requested of [REDACTED] by your department at the Aug 22nd hearing, and subsequently granted by the judge, have been adhered to by [REDACTED] nor wether the updated and strengthened OOP (to include 3rd party contact) has been served on [REDACTED] and entered into the system. Please will you kindly advise on both these items? Thank you.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Rees

Trooper Karderinis:

This week I received a certified letter through the mail addressed to me at my court ordered confidential address from [REDACTED] whom I have three (3) active Orders of Protection against.

The People of the State of New York sought and was granted three (3) permanent no contact Orders of Protection against [REDACTED] on my behalf:

- One OOP (1) issued on 08/09/2023 by Smithville town Judge Jordan Lilley
- One OOP (1) issued on 09/11/2023 by Smithville town Judge Jordan Lilley
- One OOP (1) issued by 11/14/2023 by Norwich County Judge Frank Revolor Jnr.

I have attached all three active Orders of Protection.

Further, on 02/22/2024 a Court Order was issued by Broome County Judge Mark Young to keep my new out of state address confidential.

I have attached that Court Order.

On January 10th, 2024 I emailed you evidence of [REDACTED]'s voluminous violations of those orders, including but not limited to, text messages sent by [REDACTED] to my personal cell phone number. (attached)

This week I received a certified letter through the mail addressed to me at my court ordered confidential address from [REDACTED]. I have not opened the letter - the envelope is stuffed to the brim with multiple pages.

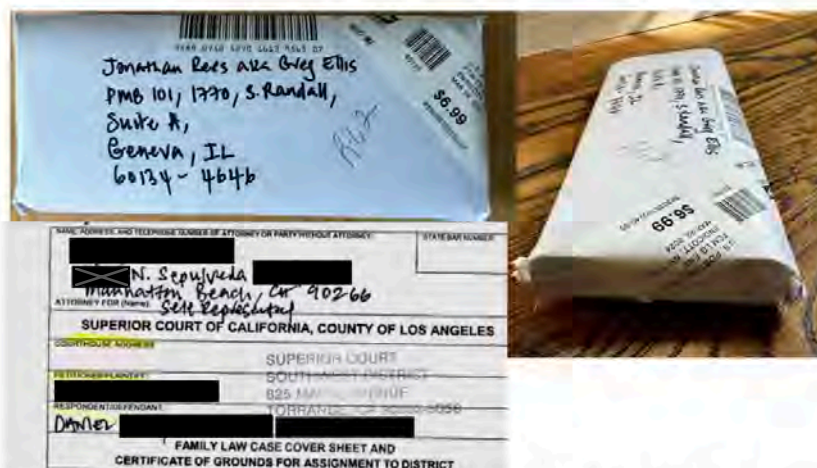

Attached is screenshot showing:

1. The certified letter mailed to my confidential address by [REDACTED] from Endicott, NY (where she resides) on March 22nd, 2024.

2. The 1st page of [REDACTED]'s handwritten Los Angeles divorce court petition from May 2022.

Defendant Confirms He Received a Copy of Plaintiff's Handwritten Divorce/Custody Papers From Los Angeles Superior Court, Which it Seems He Used To Locate Plaintiff's Ex-Husband and Send Him a Link to the Website.

Case 3:23-cv-01352-TJM-ML Document 84-4 Filed 12/10/24 Page 47 of 78

This latest OOP violation, sending me direct mail to my court ordered confidential address, is yet another violation of the 3 OOP's and the confidentiality Order, all while on pre-trial probation release awaiting trial before Chenango Judge Frank B. Revoir Jr. for multiple violent criminal acts involving firearms - shooting at me and two other civilians.

This week's violation is in addition to the previous OOP violations I notified you about, as well as her daily defamatory social media campaign that started Aug 9th, one day after she was arrested and the OOP's were issued.

I fled NY state on August 10th, 2023, accompanied by NY State troopers to the county line, and have only returned once since, with armed transport from Chenango Sheriffs for my safety, for a Grand Jury hearing that indicted [REDACTED] on 3 x 1st degree felonies and 1 x 2nd degree menacing charge. I have lived out of state since, in fear of my life, as [REDACTED] continues hounding and hunting me - hence why I have been, and remain, unable to "make a complaint in person" as you suggested I do in your Jan 10th email.

On Nov 14th, 2023 [REDACTED] was arraigned at Norwich County Court and was ordered to attend weekly pre-trial probation check ins by Judge Revoir. [REDACTED]'s continuing contacting of me are clear violations of not only the OOP's but also her pre-trial probation.

What action will you be taking?

I have cc'd local law enforcement, out of state law enforcement, my NY State Troopers victims advocate, and local and state attorneys representing me.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter and anticipated response.

Defendant Shared One Life, Two Faces With Plaintiff's Ex-Husband,
Who Texted Her a Link to This Page on the Website.

One Life, Two Faces

██████████, a name that once echoed with the promise of empowerment and resilience, now resonates with the echoes of duplicity and contradiction. In the public eye, ██████████ is a self-made author, a woman of words weaving narratives of self-help and empowerment. Her book, "██████████ ██████████," marked the beginning of her journey as a self-publisher, a journey painted with the hues of women-power and the indomitable spirit of motherhood.

<https://www.██████████.info/>

Yet, behind the curtains of public adulation and self-proclamation, ██████████'s life was a theatre of contradictions. The woman who publicly endorsed the narrative of "mothers can do everything" was the same woman who left her children in the care of a convicted child sex offender - their father.

On June 8, 2017, ██████████'s public praise for her ex-husband was a performance of gratitude. She lauded him for stepping up to the responsibility of watching the kids while she trotted the globe. Yet, in the private corridors of conversations, ██████████ painted a different picture. To her close confidantes, her ex-husband was a man marked by physical abuse and moral decay.

The dichotomy of ██████████'s narrative was as stark as it was unsettling. Public records and court documents unveiled the truth - her ex-husband was a convicted child sex offender, his victim, a child of merely five years. Yet, ██████████'s children were left under his watch, a decision that stood in stark contradiction to the public persona she so meticulously crafted.

The unraveling of ██████████'s double life didn't stop there. Her ex-husband was arrested for failing to register as a sex offender. In the court documents, ██████████ listed his address as the ██████████. The woman who once stood as a symbol of empowerment was now entangled in a narrative of contradiction and questionable decisions.

Defendant Talks About Mr. Roland Bougas on His Website About Plaintiff and Includes a Video of Him at His Property. He Further Slips Up Showing He's the Author Writing "I Said 'Oh, My God.'"

Home | [REDACTED] Lies

11/1/23, 1:47 PM

On a quiet day, a doorbell rang of the residence that had recently been the scene of a chilling event: an attempted shooting involving [REDACTED]. The visitor was "R", an elderly man with a heavy heart and a story to share. He had come seeking answers and perhaps some closure after his own distressing encounter with the same woman. R had learned from his realtor about the harrowing incident where [REDACTED] had tried to shoot the homeowner. "My realtor sent me information on how she tried to shoot you," R shared, his voice tinged with disbelief and concern. "I said, 'Oh, my God.'"

"I got scammed by [REDACTED]," R began, his voice laden with the weight of betrayal. Behind this simple statement lay a tale of deception, dashed hopes, and financial ruin. R had a straightforward dream: to sell his house in New York and start afresh in Florida. But that dream quickly turned into a financial quagmire when he crossed paths with [REDACTED].

R's story paints a vivid picture of the devastating impact of financial deception. Beneath the legalities and email exchanges lies a tale of an elderly couple, once hopeful for their golden years, now grappling with financial instability and the emotional toll of betrayal. The house in New York, which should have been a symbol of their life's work and cherished memories, now stood as a haunting reminder of their encounter with [REDACTED].

Letter to District Attorney Ferrarese, Which Defendant Filed in His Ex-Girlfriend's Case in His Own Words, Showing Defendant Knows Mr. Roland Bougas and as Per His Pattern, He Seems to Have Manipulated Him into Filing Police Complaints Against Plaintiff.

Dear Ms. Rudy,

The primary purpose of this email is to connect you and the Chenango Sherriff's lead investigator Chad O'Hara to the Detective Sergeant from the jurisdiction I have been staying since the attempt on my life on August 8 - Detective Sergeant Gary Labarbera.

He and I have discussed my connecting him with you regarding the ongoing case, the violations of the OOP, the preservation request to the social media platform X (that was granted over a week ago) and an offer from Detective Sergeant Gary Labarbera to send you all the police reports as well as body cam footage as required:

Prosecuting attorney - ADA Christine Rudy: (607) 337-1745
Lead detective on the 8/8/23 attempted murder - Detective Sergeant Chad O'Hara: (607) 337-1921
Lead detective in the jurisdiction I have been staying out of state - Detective Sergeant Gary Labarbera: (630) 454-2500

As instructed by you and the NY State Troopers some weeks ago, I filed a report with the police Dept. at the jurisdiction I was in when the violations of the OOP occurred. Officer Saxma took the 1st report. When more violations occurred Officer Carpino recorded the 2nd report. When I talked with you again two weeks ago, you urged me to again go to the local law enforcement office of the jurisdiction where I was staying to file another report as you told me that they had jurisdiction. Officer/Detective Renninger took that (3rd) report.

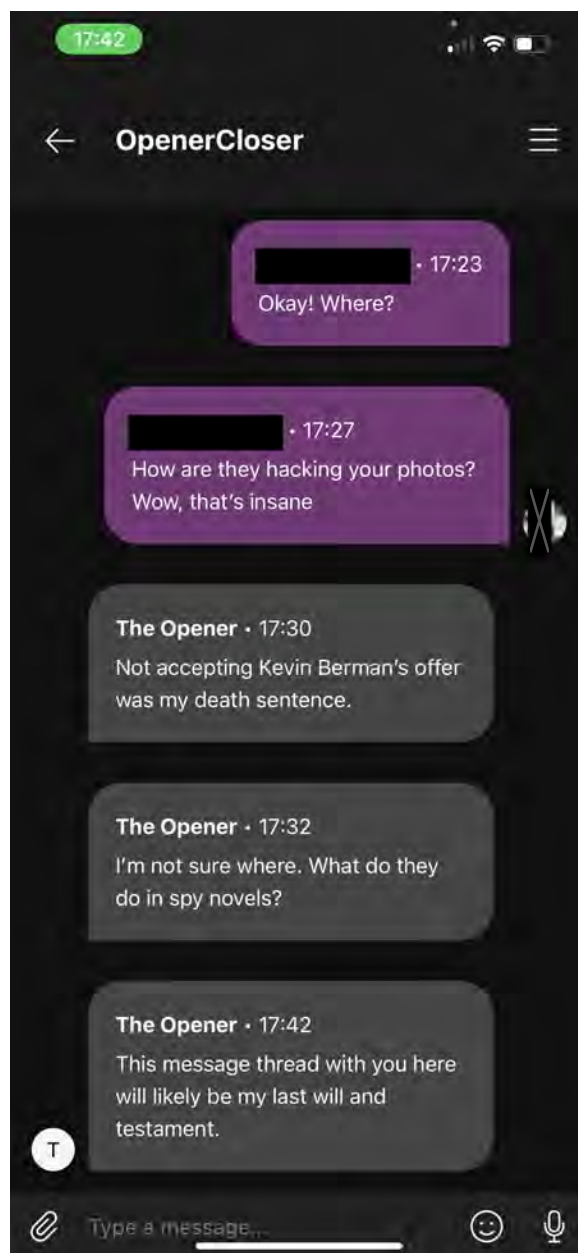

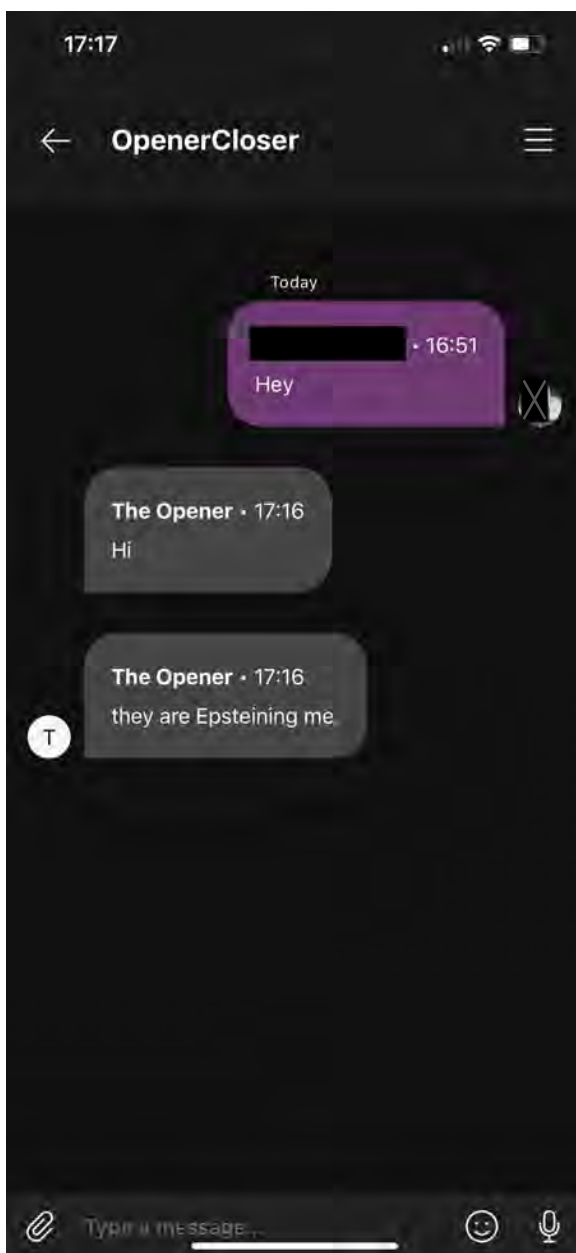

I then sat with veteran Detective Sergeant Gary LaBarbera who took a 4th report and spoke with the State's Attorney. It is their legal opinion that violations of the OOP must be dealt with by your jurisdiction, hence why I am emailing you, as the ADA on the case, and cc'ing Gary, as well as the lead investigator on the attempted murder case, Detective Sergeant Chad O'Hara.

Detective Sergeant Gary Labarbera and his officers were diligent in applying for, and receiving, a preservation order from the social media platform 'X', in case [REDACTED] deletes her defamatory, intimidating and harassing public messages.

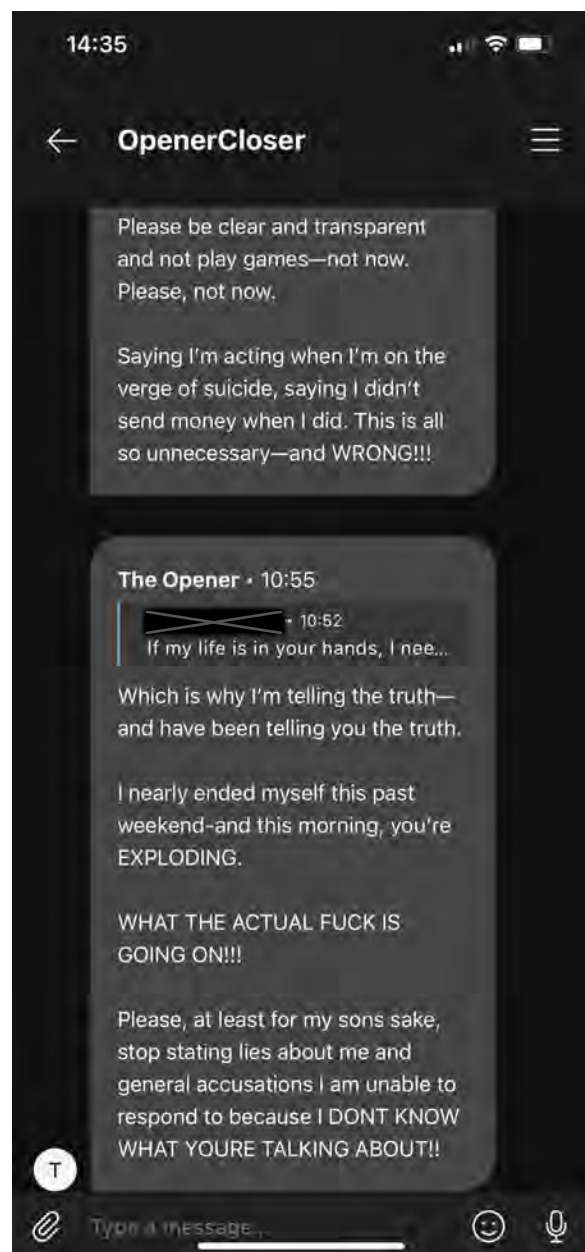

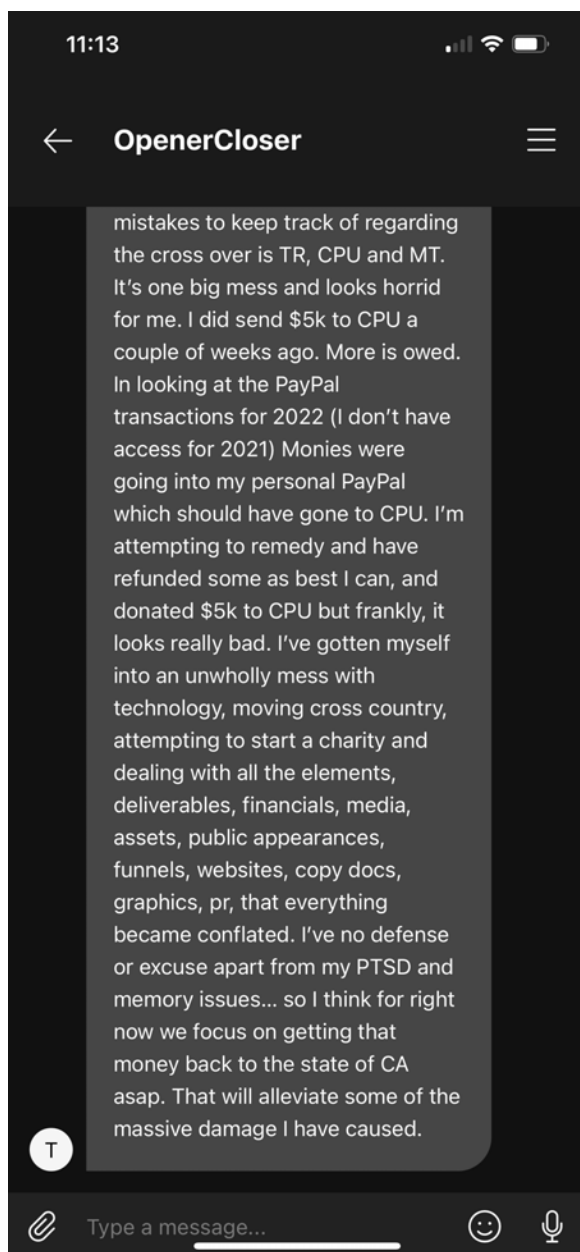

I am also aware you are also in receipt of complaints made to Chenango County Sherriff's and NY State Troopers by a Mr. Roland Bourgas, an 80 yr old local man with leukemia, on food stamps who is now homeless and sleeping on a blow-up mattress after [REDACTED] allegedly scammed him out of his life savings.

To Whom it may Concern,

On April 29th 2024 at approximately 4:45-5:00pm a man called the Tru by Hilton Vestal Asking for [REDACTED] and if she was staying at the hotel. They stated that they were a Main Endwell school official. The front desk agent Mcdaniel Smith said that we cannot confirm or deny if guests are staying at our hotel per confidentiality policies. The caller was persistent saying they knew [REDACTED] was at the hotel. Mr. Smith apologized but again stated he was unable to assist them. He said that if they wanted, they could leave a message with a callback number and if they knew the guest they were looking for they could let them know they left a message for them. The caller did not want to leave a name or phone number and hung up.

If you have any questions or require any other information please reach out.

To: [REDACTED]

Thank you for the information [REDACTED].

Despite the timing you described, I just spoke with the District and was assured that they are in possession of your order of protection and that no one from the District has disclosed your address to anyone outside the District. They will continue to make sure that your address/location remains confidential.

Unfortunately I don't have enough information, and cannot explain the two calls you described to me, one from someone apparently posing as an attorney and the other, an MECSD employee. Is it perhaps the same person?

Please reach out if you find out more or there is anything else I can do.

Sorry [REDACTED] me again,

I just spoke with transportation and they indicated that you were reluctant to complete the attached residency forms.

I absolutely understand, but please know that these forms serve two important purposes:

1. MECSD is required by law [REDACTED] (in your case, temporary housing), and has reporting requirements to the State Education Department of the number of students in temporary housing within the District.
2. The purpose of gathering this information is to ensure your children are provided with the rights and services under the [REDACTED] including continued enrollment in the District and transportation.

[REDACTED]

As far as privacy, once the school has received these forms [REDACTED] please know that under no circumstances will this information be shared with anyone other than MECSD employees who need this information to meet your children's' educational and transportation needs, and to fulfill reporting requirements with the State Education Department.

[REDACTED]

I can also tell you that I have now spoken with several District employees today and advised them of the calls you described to me. All of them are absolutely aware of the OOP and each has assured me that no one has, or is aware of anyone who has improperly disclosed your whereabouts. The District has been, and remains fully committed to safeguarding this information and is required to do so under federal and state law.

Sorry for the long email, but I would greatly appreciate it if you would complete and return the two enclosed forms to myself or the District as soon as possible.

As always, if you have questions or wish to discuss further, I'm happy to talk with you any time.

Dear [REDACTED]

This letter is in response to your recent request for a stay of order to the Commissioner of Education. We will immediately re-enroll [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] for in-person education in the Maine-Endwell school district while the Commissioner considers your appeal and our response.

We will re-establish a class schedule for [REDACTED] in 8th grade at the Maine-Endwell Middle School and will do the same for [REDACTED] in 9th and [REDACTED] in 10th at the high school. As a middle school student, [REDACTED] is entitled to transportation to and from school. Although [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] live within the "walking distance" for Maine-Endwell high school students, as a courtesy, we will allow them to ride the same bus. The bus route is Rt. 4 and will stop in front of your residence at 7:10 am and will drop them off at 2:50 pm.

Since schools "take custody" of minors while they are at school and are responsible for their safety while in our care, it is imperative that we have on file your most current address. If you vacate your current [REDACTED] residence we must have your new address on file in case of an illness, injury or other emergency or concern involving your minor children during school hours.

1 and Mr. Vacco, I ordinarily do not allow individual litigants
2 to make arguments because you have counsel until I relieve 3 them.

4 Secondly, Mr. Rees, even if I were to allow it,
5 anything you say here is on the record and it is usable at 6 any further and future proceedings, so you really want to 7 think long and hard before you say anything, and Ms. Means
8 may actually prefer that you don't say anything because it's 9 on the record and it's something that you will be bound by.

10 So my suggestion would be, Mr. Rees, let Ms. Means 11 do all the talking until and unless she is no longer your 12 attorney, and unless and until you go pro se, then you
13 obviously will need to do all the talking. So does that make 14 sense, Mr. Rees?

15 DEFENDANT REES: It does, your Honor. And 16 ordinarily I wouldn't request time to address the court, but 17 there are extremely extenuating circumstances with regards to 18 my situation, shall we say.

19 THE COURT: Well, here's what I would suggest,
20 Mr. Rees. Ms. Means will be filing a motion on June 10th,
21 and you and she can discuss if there's something that you
22 individually would like to say to the court, you're welcome
23 to in that motion and Ms. Means can assist you, you can file
24 an affidavit if there's information that you want to convey 25 in connection with that motion or otherwise and so forth, or

JODI L. HIBBARD, RMR, CRR, CSR
(315) 234-8547

1 Ms. Means can convey anything that you are articulating, but
2 I really would prefer not to have you or Ms. Doe at this
3 point interacting on the record because both of you have
4 counsel at this point, okay?

5 DEFENDANT REES: I understand, your Honor. So I,
6 as I understand it, I'm being instructed or advised not to
7 speak today, your Honor?

8 THE COURT: Well, it's not not to speak, it's -- 9 the rule is, this is a rule in federal court, a litigant that 10 is represented by counsel cannot do a hybrid type of process,
11 so the federal courts, federal judges typically will not
12 allow a litigant who's represented to make arguments and then 13 on other things have their lawyers make arguments or to 14 present things and then in other aspects have the lawyer
15 present things. We don't allow that, we call that hybrid
16 representation. So you have to allow your lawyer to do all 17 of your representation and the exception becomes obviously if 18 you proceed pro se. So what I'm going to do is, like I said,
19 Ms. Means will be filing something in a week and between now
20 and then, you and she can speak and then if there's something
21 there that needs to be articulated, she can articulate that 22 for the court. Okay?

23 DEFENDANT REES: Thank you, your Honor, and just
24 very briefly, I will say for the record that plaintiff's
25 aforementioned by her opposing counsel's friend and witness

JODI L. HIBBARD, RMR, CRR, CSR
(315) 234-8547

1 [REDACTED] who was set for deposition this week is
2 indicted on three first degree felonies after trying to
3 murder me with a rifle at my home in Chenango --

4 MS. MEANS: Mr. Rees, I would prefer that we add
5 this to your declaration.

6 DEFENDANT REES: I understand, okay, thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay. At the expense of being
8 repetitive, I do want to repeat the schedule. So Ms. Means,
9 your motion is to be filed ex parte by June 10th. Ms. Means,
10 I'll also indicate that if there is things that you can say
11 to help Ms. Mahoney understand your motion that are not 12 privileged or otherwise bound by attorney-client
13 communication, please feel free to file that on the record.
14 The ex parte filing is only as to privileged materials and 15 attorney-client communications, so if there are things that 16 do not need to be ex parte, please just file it separately so
17 that it is on the docket and that may benefit Ms. Mahoney's
18 understanding also perhaps a little bit of the picture. But 19 that will be due June 10th. Ms. Mahoney, any response, 20 June 17th. Status reports, June 26th, including not just the 21 status of the litigation but also the four dates and four 22 times that counsel have selected for an in-person hearing.
23 I'm staying the deadlines temporarily until I decide the 24 issue of the motion to withdraw. And then letter motion
25 Number 34, motion to compel by plaintiff, that will be

Subject: Fraud on Quest For Youth

Message: Hi there

I actually own all the footage that has been used for the documentary Quest For Youth. [REDACTED] has committed many legal offences regarding this and I have all contracts that can prove this.

She was hired as an Executive Producer but she ended up trying to black mail all the people that were involved with it

[REDACTED]

She owns nothing and I have all legal rights which I'm happy to share with you

I was also working on it myself and this was the trailer that my team had created

https://youtu.be/UE-oxT_AzIg

I have also been in close contact with Michael Maloy who created the edit for Quest For Youth and we believe that we can finish this project at a higher level which will have more impact.

If you would like to discuss things further then please let me know by emailing me back or contacting me direct on +447774 [REDACTED]

If you would like to read more information on [REDACTED] then please check this website out because she has conned so many people and I wouldn't wish for this to happen with your company.

[https://www.\[REDACTED\].info/](https://www.[REDACTED].info/)

My apologies this isn't a positive message but Michael and myself believe it can end very positively for us all

Many thanks

Skip Archimedes

Re: Form Submission - New Form - Quest For Youth

To: [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for the additional information. Could you please provide us with the chain of title like you offered? Generally it's not ideal if there is a dispute over who is the rights holder when it comes to our distribution of the title as there are plenty of other titles in our catalog that don't have this issue. Do you know why Mike Maloy thinks he has the rights he is claiming? And is there any chance of you working this out with him?

Best regards,
